

Sad Face

Børns

Been running a fast pace
Burning through my soles like there's lava on the road
I don't know how to slow down
I just saw my whole life flashing like a strobe light
Where's everyone going?
We're stuck in a rat race
Felt like I was winning but now I'm in last place
Another smile just trying to cover up another sad face

I'm so sick of looking in the mirror seeing just another sad face
I'm so tired of superficial love leaving just another bad taste
All out of happy pills
So I'm seeking out discount thrills
I'm so sick of my sad face

Now we're in a new age
One day we're romancing
The next you're disenchanted
Let's turn to a new page
God knows I learned from the last one
Feels like we're throwing stones at a glass vase
Can we take a second?
Hit the backspace
I don't feel like laughing
Just to masquerade another sad face

I'm so sick of looking in the mirror seeing just another sad face
I'm so tired of superficial love leaving just another bad taste
All out of happy pills
So I'm seeking out discount thrills
I'm so sick of my sad face
I'm so sick of my sad face
