

Sudden, suddenly, sudden, suddenly
Sudden, suddenly, sudden, suddenly
Sudden, suddenly, sudden, suddenly

Suddenly
I'm alone in outer space
Not a single friendly face out in front of me
It happened so suddenly
And here I go again
Slow dancing with the past
Romancing every tragic little memory
To a bittersweet melody
And now I'm waiting on the line
For the meaning of my life to come back
And that's just where I'm at
That's just where I'm at

Oh, there was a time
Oh, and what a time it was
We were loving just because
Love was everywhere
Honey, well that was such a different time
'Cause now I'm driving back to mine
And I feel the world's weight on my back
And that's just where I'm at
That's just where I'm at

And suddenly
All the music was erased
Didn't even leave a trace of harmony
Yeah, they tried to take a part of me
And I'm looking at the time
But I don't think I'll ever get it back
And that's just where I'm at
Oh, that's just where I'm at Ooh-hmm, that's just where I'm at
That's just where I'm at

And suddenly
I'm alone in outer space
Not a single friendly face out in front of me
Oh, it happened so suddenly
And I'm waiting for the light
But maybe I'm just fading into black

Yeah, that's just where I'm at
Yeah, that's just where I'm at
That's just where I'm at
That's just where I'm at

Sudden, suddenly, sudden, suddenly
Sudden, suddenly, sudden, suddenly
Sudden, suddenly, sudden, suddenly