Crocus

Boston Manor

We fight for everything we have
I'm sick of eating all your scraps
I wish I wasn't as hungry as I am
But I want what's coming to me

Won't somebody give me what I want
A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay

Won't somebody give me what I want
A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay

I'm not the one that you wanted
I'm the one that you got
I'm only just getting started

I'm not the one that you wanted
I'm the one that you got
I'm only just getting started

This party's kind of boring
I found out where the door is
You're all so laminated, stainless
Nothing seems to want to stick to you

Who else made it out?
Stick around and find out
Cause I want what's coming to me
Yeah I want what's coming to me

I'm not the one that you wanted
I'm the one that you got
I'm only just getting started

I'm not the one that you wanted
I'm the one that you got
I'm only just getting started

Crawling my way to the top
Crawling my way to the top
Crawling my way, crawling my way
Crawling my way to the top

Won't somebody give me what I want
A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay

Won't somebody give me what I want
A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay

Won't somebody give me what I want

A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay

Won't somebody give me what I want
A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay

Won't somebody give me what I want
A little bit of luck in a rigged game
Cause I'm the only dreamer in the world
A little bit of acid in the sick bay
