

Driftwood

Boston Manor

All I ever wanted was to make you proud of me
Did I study the wrong thing or did I make it too easy?
For all the time spent, wishing for absence
I don't know where I'm going but I'll know eventually

Don't drag me home again
I'll fight for my place in the rain

Remember all the evenings where we could do no wrong
Stayed up all night drinking coffee, and writing all those songs
And now I'm upset, lonely and in debt
I can't stop fucking falling, had my eyes closed all along

There's nothing like a brand new start
To make you lose track of who you are
No warning signs just early starts
I drove all year and didn't get far
No more excuses, this world is ruthless
It's sink or swim because this place is just dragging me down

Don't drag me home again
I'll fight for my place in the rain

Don't drag me home again
I'll fight for my place in the rain

I'm done waiting
I'm done waiting

I'm done waiting

I'm done waiting
