

Monolith

Boston Manor

Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas

I can't scratch the itch
Can't crawl out of the crater
I can't quench the thirst
Cut myself on the paper
And I'm barely getting by
This hole keeps getting deeper
And deeper & deeper

Hey you, fuck you too
I'll do what I want when I want to
You've already got it all
How could you ever need some more
Hey you, fuck you too
I'll do what I want when I want to

Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas

I'm frozen in the headlights
And I don't know what to say
My thoughts are turning empty
My palette's turning grey
And I just need to whisper
But maybe I'm too late
I don't know what to say

Hey you, fuck you too
I'll do what I want when I want to
You've already got it all
How could you ever need some more
Hey you, fuck you too
I'll do what I want when I want to
You've already got it all
How could you ever need some more

Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas
Lock the door & hit the gas

Well they all crawl out of the woodwork
They crawl out to feast on your fun
They're oh so righteous
And oh so smart
The chaos has barely begun

Hey you, fuck you too
I'll do what I want when I want to
You've already got it all
How could you ever need some more

Hey you, fuck you too
I'll do what I want when I want to
You've already got it all
How could you ever need some more
