

Leavers Take On Genesis

Botch

Bow down
The new lord is here
Claiming all the land
All shall revere
Man's judgment and power
Of who lives and who dies
Dismissing evolution
Dismissing their cries

Mankind takes his rightful throne of mercy
Taking power with both eyes closed
He owns what lays before him
Resources wasted so thin
Don't struggle, don't resist
Man's own destruction of which he assists
You'll fall prey to him but now it's time to repay
