

Little Engine That Couldn't

Botch

No more cars are towing me
Stick together, I've gone full speed
Where it has gone, I'm all alone
I have no wife, I am alone

Where do I go, I don't know

Look to the red, a family
Apparently, so spill the tea
Where it speaks, where it exposed

Where do I go, I'm all alone

Fuck you
Fuck me
And fuck society

Where do I go, I'm all alone
Why would you leave me alone
