

Wounded

Botch

Some voice that speaks with me
Is this what you mean
That what you see
And can't you see this fragile shell
That you look right past me

Wounded
Wounded
Wounded

Pray the deities with my wings
Our voice you pledge
All by yourself
'Cause the disappointing truth
Your first mistakes
We won't protect you

Wounded
Wounded
Wounded

Don't wound me
Don't wound me
Don't wound me

Don't wound me
Don't wound me
Don't wound me

Don't wound me
Don't wound me
Don't wound me

Don't wound me
Don't wound me
Don't wound me

Some voice that speaks with me
Is this what you mean
That what you see
And can't you see this fragile shell
That you look right past me

Wounded
Wounded
Wounded
Don't wound me
