

Fade Away

Boundaries

Day after day, I can see the walls come crashing down
Everything that I had in place that made me feel safe starts to fade away

Fade away with me
Hand in hand towards eternity
Just another fantasy of mine
As I try to hold back time

Fade away
Cause I can't stay in one place
I'm just trying to escape
Will there always be who I am and who I want to be?

Head full of photographs
Always looking to the past
Will any amount ever be enough?
Enough for the people I love?

Living life through open windows and your missed phone calls
In too deep with nowhere to go, trying to find my home

And when it's time to say goodbye
I won't look you in the eye

Nothing stays the same
Time doesn't give, it only takes away

What should I do when the fire dies?
And there's no more light left to find?
The day to day shift from happiness to hopelessness
What's the difference?

All of my worst moments you've carved into my surface
For all to see, how could things ever be the same?

Head full of photographs
Always looking to the past
Will any amount ever be enough?
Enough for the people I love?

Living life through open windows and your missed phone calls
In too deep with nowhere to go, trying to find my home

This will be the end of me
This will be the end of me
