

Get Out

Boundaries

You will take nothing from me
Because you're not here to stay
Siphoning fucking leech (Nothing)
Nothing to say but your own name

We are only as strong as the love that we don't receive
And make no mistake, you are not like me
You are not like me

How predictable
How disappointing
How predictable
How predictable

What's it like to have a face that changes every day? (It must be exhausting
)
It must be exhausting to depend on everyone else
To only have what's been given to you

You are not here to stay

Don't know how to create, only how to make
I wish your intentions weren't so obvious
Never had my own voice, only others repeated words
So worried about being seen, just part of the fucking herd

All my failures will be my own
I am undeniable
All my failures will be my own
I am undeniable

I am undeniable
I am undeniable
I am undeniable
I am undeniable

Who the fuck are you?
Who the fuck are you?
Who the fuck are you?
Who the fuck are you?

My sworn fucking enemy
Disgusting mother fucker
You are poison to everything

Get out
Get out
Get out
Get out
Get out

Get out
Get out
Get out
Get out
Get out
