

Like Petals From A Stem

Boundaries

I have an urge to kill (Urge to kill)
To hunt you down
One by one by one (Run)

To tear at your skin (Tear)
To watch you come apart like petals from a stem
To reduce your life to seconds spent screaming
Made to swallow your own sickness

It's no worse than they deserve
It's no worse than you fucking deserve
It's no fucking worse

I will drown the world in my anger

Watch it gasp for air
As the walls come down
Watch you lose everything that you cared about
