

You And Me

Bourbon Crow

It ain't easy starting from the bottom up
Work my fingers to the bone everyday
And it ain't pretty when the good times go bad
Ask myself is it even worth it anyway

I don't wanna live this way
Seems like things they never change
I just wanna run away
Or i could just pretend every thing's gonna be okay

Sing this song about you and me
Sing a song about everything
Sing a song about how it should be
I wish the sky would stay blue
Everyday that i'm with you
And when you say you love me...wish i could say it too

If i could go back in time
And undo all the things, all those things
That didn't turn out right
