Just sitting here hoping that what we shared is more than a joke and..
We can last like the great ones do,
As long as our love for eachother stays true
Look..
I see the growth, we done both came a long way
Arguments here and there,
Fuss and fightin'

Can't nobody else compare

Start it over with another, neither one of us were there

All she gotta do is holla and her baby will be there

Ain't a doubt about it in my mind that we a perfect pair

Can't think of anyone, that's how I wanna spend my years

Try my hardest not to hurt her,

Hate to bring her to them tears

And I know just how it feel when I whisper in her ear

No, I let her drive a stick,

She know how to work dem gears

Ain't gotta worry 'bout the chicks I meet during my career

Me going somewhere should be the last of her fears

She's my L-O-V-E Used to be scare dof relationships but this one I can't deny You my L-O-V-E Yeah, and when you see her, you see me for her I ride or die like Ruff Ryders
