

Dry Eyes

Boy & Bear

Get fire back
Coming after me
Coming at me
I was all, I was alright
I was alright

To get back to daylight
We'll need a revenant ruler
To get back to a time
When there was nothing but dry eyes
Dry eyes

And to the lovers I leave
I never meant to be hurtful
But it hurts

I can't explain what I need
But I won't bend my knee
To a god that insists that you to suffer

There's no paradise life
In an empty freeze
No kingdom of light
Looking out for, looking out for me
Bone dragging on ice
Bone dragging on ice

Get fire back
Coming after me
Coming at me
I was all, I was alright
I'll be alright
