

Roses

Boy & Bear

It's so simple but it's true
It hits like a comet
But the past you can't undo
And I might be on my own with this
But nobody knows it
It's the life force to exist

Won't you bury me down
Where all of the roses will grow
'Cause baby, you know me too well
And it takes some time
To try and understand it
To understand
But baby, you know me too well

And I feel misunderstood
It's not that I'm reckless
It's the way I feel I should
But I wanna be honest
I ain't done all I can do
But when this time is over

Won't you bury me down
Where all of the roses will grow
'Cause baby, you know me too well
And it takes some time
To try and understand it
To understand
But baby, you know me too well

But time is everything
It's the friend I never quite found
Sweet signs of ecstasy
Don't you miss it on the fly
I never get it all right
Oh, don't you be scared
Upon this silent night

Won't you bury me down
Where all of the roses will grow
'Cause baby, you know me too well
And it takes some time
To try and understand it
To understand
But baby, you know me too well
