

Slow Guns

Boy Eats Drum Machine

I hate the war
And that settles things youve said your piece is there nothing more

I hate the war
Well what don't you hate you criticize while we restore
You're all confused
No I'm afraid that's you with

The people around on the highest horses
With slow guns and meticulous voices

If you love the war then say you love the war
And I guess well never agree

Cuz there's a lot of opinions conflicting emotions
Blind optimism and hopeless devotion all round
When all we want is common sense and you don't make no sense

It's all a lie
Tell me wheres the proof how do you tell the lies from truth
Give it time
Yes yes time will speak with the battles won in the coming week s
It's all a lie
You're just following
