

The Taste of Your Mouth

Boy Eats Drum Machine

I'm either dreaming too much, or not dreaming at all
It's not a flaw I'm just emotional
And if there's one thing I know, it's that I want some candy
Made specially to be the flavor of the taste of your mouth

I try to identify the taste of your mouth
But there's no comparison to think about
So I'm bracing myself for these hours apart
But when I see you again, I'm gonna want to taste the taste of your mouth

I want the taste of your mouth I want the taste of your mouth
I want the taste in my mouth to be the taste of your mouth
I want the taste of your mouth I want the taste of your mouth
I want the taste in my mouth to be the taste of your mouth
I want the taste of your mouth I want the taste of your mouth
I want the taste in my mouth to be the taste of your mouth
I want the taste of your mouth I want the taste of your mouth
I want the taste in my mouth to be the taste of your mouth
