

Gravel

Boy George

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh

I should talk you out of this point of view
Don't you think I've tried?
The arc of your story is missing the glory
Of a true revolution
Irony, what a drag
Too many wrong facts
And no-one listens to Dylan
Except for me

You're gravel baby
Just a handful of dirt
You're gravel baby
You never pay what it's worth
You're gravel baby
Selfish through and through
You're gravel baby
Spineless little guru
Spineless little guru

Your broke it up, smashed it
Left it twisted, too much compromise
Tears of mascara, I was thinking about now
Not yesterday, I know yesterday pays
Nostalgia is a racket

Think about it before you say it
Is it even true?
The way you feel about me
Is it just the way you feel about you?
All this is being demystified
Iggy told the truth
But the rest of your lied
Liar

You're gravel baby
A handful of dirt
You're gravel baby
You never pay what it's worth
You're gravel baby
Selfish through and through
You're gravel baby
Spineless little guru
Spineless little guru

I love how you thank the universe
But you piss on me
Should I stay stuck to you with memory glue
Forget about the good times, boo hoo hoo
Do one spineless little guru
Do one

You're gravel baby

A handful of dirt
You're gravel baby
You're gravel baby

Ari up, polystyrene
Where's the noise?
Where's the noise?

You broke it, smashed it
Tears of mascara
I was thinking about now, not yesterday
I know yesterday pays, nostalgia is a racket
