

A Madness Called Love

Boy Hits Car

Get up!
We got a madness called love!
Fuck It!
We got a madness called love!
Move!

Here comes a madness called love

It has become so very dark
When this love use spark
And burned the night away
When time and space just get
Within that first kiss
Now just a point of play
Yeah

I will find you
I will Secure your heart
And then I'll fuck it up
Fuck it up

She's walking out the door!
I'm face down on the floor
Will she be the one who got away on something more?
No time for second chance!
This leads to romances
Someday we have made
Feels like a madness called love

Feelings exploding inside
Insatiable appetite
That we cannot contain no
So come tell me what will abide
Except some peace of mind
That we were meant to be
Yeah!

Still I'll find you
I will mend my heart
But then I'll fuck it up oh
Oh!

Oh! She's walking out the door
I'm face down on the floor
Will she be the one who got away or something more?
No time for second chance
This leads to romances
Someday we have made
This madness called love is driving me insane
Oh-oh-ho

You evolved into someways I've never dreamed possible
For a madness called love
Is what you've become

So come and tell me what you find meaningful
Or you have become intangible

Come tell me if we are merely done
This madness called love is what we become!

She's walking out the door
I'm face down on the floor
The one who got away!

She's walking out the door!
I'm face down on the floor
Will she be the one who got away or something more?
No time for second chance!
This leads to romancing
Someday we have made!

But I guess I'm the one to blame!
This is a madness called love!
Yeah!
