

Oh!

(Is it myself I need strength against?)

Stuck here
Alone on this western shore
Don't know
I don't know what to say no more
She knows what I feel
What I have got to give
Is it myself I that need strength against?

So come take me away
I am lost and so torn
Needing your embrace
Your embrace
(Is it myself I need strength against?)

I don't know
I just don't know who I've become
Feeling alone
Feeling so cold deep and torn Am I drinking to
Trying to get over you
Am I drinking 'cause
Trying to numb the pain of love

So come take me away
I am lost and so torn
Needing your embrace
So what's it going to take?
'Cause I'd rather live my life sorry than say

Is it myself I need strength against?
Is it myself I need strength against?

So come take me away
I am lost and so torn needing your embrace

So what's it going to take?
'Cause I'd rather live my life sorry than say

So come take me away (so come take me away)
I am lost and so torn needing your embrace

Your embrace!

And is it myself I need strength?
Is it myself I need strength against?
