

Caroline

Boy In Space

Caroline, Caroline
On my mind, stuck for life
I don't think I'll ever forget you
Ooh, in my eyes, tears of mine
Take my heart and my life
Caroline, tonight I need to hold you

Sometimes, yeah, it hurts, but does it really matter?
I've been having dreams and it feels like wonderland
Sometimes I just wish that you would wear my sweater
But I've been holding on for too long with slippery hands

And ooh, love me like I love you
But you walk out of my life
Ooh, but I can understand you
I'm not your guy, who am I?

Caroline, Caroline
On my mind, stuck for life
I don't think I'll ever forget you
Ooh, in my eyes, tears of mine
Take my heart and my life
Caroline, tonight I need to hold you

If I could make a wish I would get courage to tell you
The ghost under my bed tells me, "Don't you even try"
And if I had a bird I would send a thousand letters
But I ain't got a thing 'cause you're not here by my side

And ooh, love me like I love you
But you walk out of my life
Ooh, but I can understand you
I'm not your guy, who am I?

Caroline, Caroline
On my mind, stuck for life
I don't think I'll ever forget you
Ooh, in my eyes, tears of mine
Take my heart and my life
Caroline, tonight I need to hold you

Caroline, Caroline
On my mind, stuck for life
I don't think I'll ever forget you
Ooh, in my eyes, tears of mine
Take my heart and my life
Caroline, tonight I need to hold you

(Caroline, tonight I need to hold you
Caroline, tonight I need to hold you
Caroline, tonight I need to hold you)
I don't think I'll ever forget you, Caroline
(Caroline, tonight I need to hold you)
