

Dead End

Boy In Space

Yeah... yeah

Somebody loved you
Somebody set the truth on fire
And it was me
A tragedy, yeah, I believe
I wanna find out
So burst my bubble, I'm falling to the ground now
Down on my knees
And I'm just caught up in

Lying in my bed, all the things I said
Think I'm gonna call you but I never
Fall asleep instead, maybe I'm just dead
Wishing I could change what we've become now
But I can't, you'll never forgive me
Misunderstood, smoking like a chimney
What you said, now it all makes sense
Maybe it's a dead-end, now or never

Somebody told ya
That words don't hurt, but you're crying on his shoulder
A part of me, yeah yeah yeah
Is kinda dead now, I believe
Some days I fall out
From your head, guess I'm staying in the dog house
Insanity, oh-oh
No clarity at all

Lying in my bed, all the things I said
Think I'm gonna call you but I never
Fall asleep instead, maybe I'm just dead
Wishing I could change what we've become now
But I can't, you'll never forgive me
Misunderstood, smoking like a chimney
What you said, now it all makes sense
Maybe it's a dead-end, now or never

Yeah, yeah, yeah
