

You said: Baby, come up to the office
you sang at my party
I owe you some money.
You owe me your lips,
I'm gonna give tips.
And I heard your boyfriend is out of town.
Baby aren't you hungry?
I could feed you cookies,
I could get my car keys.
Oh what a cute dress,
but right now it's useless
I heard your boyfriend is out of town.

I said: You should get out of town too.
I said: You should get out of town too.

You said:
Baby, I know you like me,
You know that we want us,
really, I'm serious.
We could have good fun
and we're only young once
and I heard your boyfriend is out of town.

Baby where are you going?
Don't be such a diva,
you can't just leave now!
Come back, don't bore me,
you can't just ignore me.
Isn't your boyfriend out of town?

I said yes.

And you should get out of town too!
I said you should get out of town too!
I said you should get out of town too!
I said you, yeah you should get out of town too!

I said you should get out of town too!
I said you should get out of town
(out of town, out of town) too!
I said you, you, you, you, should get out of town too!
I said you... you should get out of town too!

You said: Baby, come up to the office
you sang at my party
I owe you some money.
You owe me your lips,
I'm gonna give tips.
And I heard your boyfriend is out of town.
