

AndroGay I am back

Caught it on Wednesday, shortened my hair
Hoping you'd see I'm less a lady
Told me you'd date me if I were a boy
Damn, what a shame, to be such a bore

And all this time to wait and see, if
You'll come and talk to me, or
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me, and
If you like androgyny, or
If you're just shitting me, well
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me
Like oh!

Made out in your bathroom
Kiss never tell
Never forget the way that it felt
If it never happened, you'd be the same
Honey please, you'd still be gay

And all this time to wait and see, if
You'll come and talk to me, or
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me, and
If you like androgyny, or
If you're just shitting me, well
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me
Like oh!

Still, I like the way you smell
And the way your eyes look down
And your laugh when I play stupid
Pretend that I'm the new kid
At school and in the hall, and
Tells you "I think you're hot"

Still, I like the way you smell
And the way your eyes look down
Your laugh when I play stupid
Pretend that I'm the new kid
At school and in the hall and
Tells you "I think your hot, baby"

And all this time to wait and see, if
You'll come and talk to me, or
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me, and
If you like androgyny, or
If you're just shitting me, well
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me
Like oh!
Like oh!

Like oh!
Save me from losing sleep, and
You'll come and talk to me like
Like oh!
