Legs

Boyish

It won't stay but I'll talk to you till it's gone again
I'm so shy, one day I'll shut up totally
Make up my mind, tell me what to wear and when to eat
Cause when you're gone, I lie about most everything

You look so alive now these days
It's warm outside, enough to stay
Laid in the grass across your legs
Don't look too close, now it's gone away
Next year you'll think about this place
Your friends upstairs and in my face

I chose all wrong, but at least I didn't hesitate
I think too much, bout letting go of little things
Took some years to pull me out of it
I feel so lost I can't exist
Then by the end, I wanna go home

It's not fair it looks a lot like you
You ruin me, I'll ruin you
You wanna stay, I wanna go

And never talk about it
It hurts more when you mean it
Let's never talk about it

It's not fair it looks a lot like you
(And never talk about it)
You ruin me, I'll ruin you
(It hurts more when you mean it)
You wanna stay, I wanna go
(Let's never talk about it)

Oooooohhh ooohhhhhhh
