

Holy Smokin' O's

Boys of Fall

There's a story to be told here.
Don't ignore a word I say.
Here's to the end my friend.
You're now an obstacle in my way.

There's a story to be told here.
Don't ignore a word I say.
Here's to the end my friend.
You're now an obstacle in my way.

I can finally breathe.
As the ink's pouring out
And my stories been told.
See this through my eyes.
Because I see all you do.
The ammunition runs through me
With every beat of my chest.
Get your story straight.
Tonight, I've shown my truth.
Now can you?
Go.

You're a pawn in a king's game.

You're a pawn in a king's game.
And I promise you won't keep up.
You've burned every bridge.
Now it's all in your way.
It's all in your way.
And I promise you won't keep up.
You've burned every bridge.
Now it's all in your way.
It's all in your way.

I see the fear in your eyes.
Talk to me like you're tall,
When you're two steps away from demise.
When will you learn from your childish actions?
You'll fall.

There's a story to be told here.
Don't ignore a word I say.
Here's to the end my friend.
You're now an obstacle in my way.
Obstacle in my way.

You won't ever surpass me I'm stronger than you.
You won't ever surpass me I'm stronger than you.

You're a pawn in a king's game.
And I promise you won't keep up.
You've burned every bridge.
Now it's all in your way.
It's all in your way.
And I promise you won't keep up.
You've burned every bridge.
Now it's all in your way.

It's all in your way.

You've ran your mouth for so long, it's come to this.
Bounce.

And I promise you won't keep up.
You've burned every bridge.
Now it's all in your way.
It's all in your way.

And I promise you won't keep up.
You've burned every bridge.
Now it's all in your way.
It's all in your way.
