Boys World

Gone gone gone gone girl

If the tables were turned
You'd tell me to run
'Cause you got too many questions
To call it love
But you cancelled on Wednesday
Again on Friday
I guess he's got a hold
The damage is done

I see it now, he does you wrong
You're crying tears all night long
I'll be there when he's gone
Sometimes you gotta learn the hard way

It's your life
Nothing I can do 'cause it's your heart to break
Gotta see it through
When it's your time to waste
It's obvious you're gone gone gone gone girl
And I can't lie
I tell you the truth
But you don't want it, babe
I know that you're gonna do it anyway
It's obvious you're gone gone gone gone girl

Gone gone gone gone girl
Gone gone gone gone girl

And I know six months from now
You're gonna come around
Picking up broken pieces of your heart off the ground
And I know you gotta get it
I'll just say this now
It's hard to watch from a distance

I see it now, he does you wrong
You're crying tears all night long
I'll be there when he's gone
Sometimes you gotta learn the hard way

It's your life
Nothing I can do 'cause it's your heart to break
Gotta see it through
When it's your time to waste
It's obvious you're gone gone gone gone girl
And I can't lie
I tell you the truth
But you don't want it, babe
I know that you're gonna do it anyway
It's obvious you're gone gone gone gone girl

Gone gone gone gone girl
Gone gone gone gone girl

Gone gone gone gone girl

Gone gone gone gone girl
