Fall, kneel and beg crying and blind
just try harder and you will find the way to everlasting sight don't take this light away, it never did you any harm just when I thought that I'd find my way pageantry are all the same so here I am defiled and divine self respect should never have to bleed from my knees
don't take this light away, it never did you any harm

wait, wait, wait for something to happen wait, wait, wait to understand

I slip, I grasp, I always miss in cycles fallen angels never regain control fallen angels never fully regain control
