

Fall from Grace

BoySetsFire

I've done my best to sing along to simple anthems
I've watched the rest of your design live a lie
There's only time and static air set to denial of my life

Let me fall from grace
Cause I will never be willing
I will no longer be willing
I will fall from grace
Cause I will never be willing to stay quiet and in my place
I will no longer be willing to stay quiet and in my place

I can't begin to understand the greater purpose
But I resign from making up a reason why
Our lives are short, and time unkind and I can't change the fear inside

Let me fall from grace
Cause I will never be willing
I will no longer be willing
I will fall from grace
Cause I will never be willing to stay quiet and in my place
I will no longer be willing to stay quiet and in my place

Let me fall from grace
Let me fall from grace

Fall from grace
Cause I will never be willing
I will no longer be willing
Fall from grace
Cause I will never be willing to stay quiet and in my place
I will no longer be willing to stay quiet and in my place
I refuse to stand silently by as a witness to disgrace
