

Let It Bleed

BoySetsFire

Just shut up everybody knows its not making sense or dollars anyway
That's when we find who still believes
These dreams are my devotion, hunger and desperation
Sometimes you've gotta crawl and if I must I'll crawl alone

We've come this far – let it bleed
I've been a fool, I've been a king
It's all the same when you can finally say
I did it my way I believe

Through blood sweat and tears I have come
Born from this pain, hate, and love
This driving force that keeps me alive
Will follow me the rest of my life
