

Never Said

BoySetsFire

This I where I will stand
And here is where I will stay until my last breath
Until my dying day
'Cause we have nothing to lose, no reason to hide
No hope for tomorrow if not for tonight
Hold your ground an fight
Let this moment never fade away

Honestly you'll have to bring your tanks in and invade
'Cause we're not moving from this place
I believe our lives are still worth fighting for
We are free as long as we demand to be

There is no cost too great, there is no price too high
For the future I stand, I sacrifice
'Cause we have nothing to lose no reason to hide
No hope for tomorrow if not for tonight

Hold your ground and fight
Let this moment never fade away
banging my head against the wall
Another leader chosen
To teach us how to crawl
Appoint a new regime with all the old rapport
Full of empty promise not worth dying for
