The Filth is Rising

BoySetsFire

You can't hold it in forever the darkness soon will rise
And vomit out on the floors of obsession the monster you gold i nside

You can run and hide... but there's no escape

Control is bursting at the seams again
The [?] calls tonight
[?] like a mad man
There's nothing left in you to fight

The filth is rising there's no escape
Sin inside you will find it's way out again
The filth is rising the beast is calling you home
The filth is rising just let go
