Affection

BoyWithUke

I don't wanna be defined
Never wanted you to find me
As I'm broken by design
I with this in mind
Would you say that I'm alive?
Would you say you're truly living?
Every time I spend inside?
I just wanna know
What's the reason I'm alone?
Is she ever coming home?
Will I ever leave a legacy apart of me to grow?
Never meant to wander down this road
Couple minutes more
So I can put my thoughts on my phone

I can't be the only one who knows this
Aphrodite told me no one noticed
When I left your room
You told me I was the only one for you
You broke my heart
Baby how could you?

Late nights we stayed up talking
Deprived of sleep but I loved it
I fell for you when you held me
Blind to the lies that you'd tell me
You could break my heart again
And I would not mind
The time I spent tryna
Mend my broken complexion
Want your toxic affection

Fragile and light a lot like the ashes
Burning so bright a box of it matches
I want your eyes the same way you saw me before
I miss the life we once had together
I miss the fights we won't have remember
All of the times I told you I'll always be yours
(Such a pretender)

I can't be the only one who knows this
Aphrodite told me no one noticed
When I left your room
You told me I was the only one for you
You broke my heart
Baby, how could you?

Late nights we stayed up talking
Deprived of sleep but I loved it
I fell for you when you held me
Blind to the lies that you'd tell me
You could break my heart again
And I would not mind
The time I spent tryna
Mend my broken complexion
Want your toxic affection

Late nights we stayed up talking
Deprived of sleep but I loved it
I fell for you when you held me
Blind to the lies that you'd tell me
You could break my heart again
And I would not mind
The time I spent tryna
Mend my broken complexion
Want your toxic affection

It used to be all of the time
Back when you used to be mine
Been a while since you had left
So why can't I leave you behind?

Late nights we stayed up talking
Deprived of sleep but I loved it
I fell for you when you held me
Blind to the lies that you'd tell me
You could break my heart again
