

Forget Me

BoyWithUke

To slow for the left lane
To fast for the right train
I'm still kicking up dust
I been eating all Friday
Got my plans, hey
Fuck it man imma have it my way
It's okay 'till I hurt myself
It's a fucked up world of abysmal health
And I don't wanna be without a bit hate in my belt

All I want is to break your heart
Oh I thought that I could go
Oh baby, you can't save me
I belong on the roads you left me on
I write my pains
Oh baby, you can't save me

You came late
We just cancelled saving
I'll just write my pains
It's the end of the world
How is this possible?
I've been stuck in my head since elemantary school
How can this be?
I've got another soul on my feet
I mean exactly what I mean when Simon says they lonely
I watch these numbers as they come and go
But they forget me
Yeah
Yeah they forget me
Yeah
So I stay lonely
Yeah
Yeah they forget me
Yeah
They still don't know me
They still don't know me

All I want is to break your heart
Oh I thought that I could go
Oh baby, you can't save me
I belong on the roads you left me on
I write my pains
Oh baby, you can't save me

Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
