I've been looking for someone to be there when the water rise Not just when the skies are clear
But when the tears form in my eyes
Sometimes it's rough but strange enough
You stay through all the pain
I owe you somewhere of that
Can you be my umbrella in the rain?

When the storm clouds roll in (Will you be there?)
When the nights get colder (Will you be there?)
To be the one I am holding (Will you be there?)
I need you, where are ya? (Will you be there?)
When the winds are blowing (Will you be there?)
You feel the changes coming (Will you be there?)
Just tell me so
All I want to know is can you stand the rain?

Life can be so suffocating

It makes it hard to breathe

Love is over-rated for the ones who don't believe

But I know somewhere out there

Love will surely find me

Like the eye of a hurricane will you be the peace that I need

I know that when I am gonna find you I sin't going newhere

Like the eye of a hurricane will you be the peace that I need I know that when I am gonna find you I ain't going nowhere When the weather is raging hope you'll be there Whether you're in my life don't be ashamed Can you be my umbrella in the rain?

When the storm clouds roll in (Will you be there?)
When the nights get colder (Will you be there?)
To be the one I am holding (Will you be there?)
I need you, where are ya? (Will you be there?)
When the winds are blowing (Will you be there?)
You feel the changes coming (Will you be there?)
Just tell me so
All I want to know is can you stand the rain?

MII I want to know is tan you stand the fain.

When the sunrise kisses the sky  $\,$  And the clouds clear; girl I know you are gonna be here with me through adversity

If this feeling stays the same only then I know that you can stand the rain

When the storm clouds roll in (Will you be there?)
When the nights get colder (Will you be there?)
To be the one I am holding (Will you be there?)
I need you, where are ya? (Will you be there?)
When the winds are blowing (Will you be there?)
You feel the changes coming (Will you be there?)
Just tell me so
All I want to know is can you stand the rain?

When the walls fall crashing Could your love everlast it? I've been looking for someone Is it you? Is it you girl? Is it you? Hope it's you girl Is it you? is it you girl? Is it you? Hope it's you girl
All I want to know is can you stand the rain...
