It's Time

Here at home The thoughts racing through my crazy mind Trying to figure out If I'm loving you this one more time And when I got the mail It made me close the door just right behind On a trail of clothes Left lying here Thrown across the floor now Maybe it's the way this love was meant to be and maybe it's the only way for you and me...

It's time, to say goodbye
It's time, oh please don't cry girl
It's time, two reasons why
It's time, I will never lie to you

You cast your spell But the magic has been broken down And I'm all packed up With empty bottles lying all around It's like a flickering flame That casts a shadow on the brightest day And it does it help to know That I feel the same And it's gone now

Maybe it's the way this love was meant to be and maybe it's the only way for you and me...

[repeat CHORUS]
