

Love

Boyzone

Before we say goodnight
Look down and call for time
Before we walk away
Just think
I wish that I could say
This heart will never break
Before we start again
Let's think

We've felt too much to fall
Don't bow when the curtain calls
Before we lose it all
Before we lose it all

If it's not hard enough
If it don't hurt enough
If it's not hard to find
If it don't change your life
Then it's not love

It's never how you planned
And when you've lost all hope
That's when you'll understand
Maybe it's my mistake
I say too much too late
Till we communicate
Again

Don't hide when the rain falls
If it's easy then it can't be love
Before we lose it all
Before we lose it all

If it's not hard enough
If it don't hurt enough
If it's not hard to find
If it don't change your life
Then it's not love

Not love
'Cause love is never planned
Not ours to understand
'Cause love
Yes love
Is all we really have

If it's not hard enough
If it don't hurt enough
If it's not hard to find
If it don't change your life
Then it's not love
Not love, oh
Then it's not love
Then it's not love
Then it's not love
Then it's not love
Not love, oh
Then it's not love
