

Love Don't Love Nobody

Boz Scaggs

Sometimes a girl, will come and go
You reach for love, but I won't let you know
That in the end, you'll still be loving her
But then she's gone, you're alone
I'll never learn to get myself
I've been a fool, now I need somebody else
Just like boy blue, I'd blow my own for you
Just lead me on, baby, I should have known

It takes a fool to learn
Now that love don't love nobody
It takes a fool to learn
That love don't love no-one

The silent pain, disarmed my face
My heart beats on, but I won't take the blame
I'd give her all, all the love I had to give
My love was strong, something sure and right

It takes a fool to learn
Now that love don't love nobody
It takes a fool to learn
That love don't love no-one

It takes a fool to learn
Now that love don't love nobody
It takes a fool to learn
That love don't love no-one
