

Warren's Song, Pt. 11

Bracket

She has a smile capable of saving me
And I can share all of my love and misery
I have a reason to survive

She hears my broken words
Confess my phobias to her
And her love is unwavering
Now unhappiness will have to wait

She's smiling at me
I'm falling in love now
She's singing my songs
I'm falling in love now
She's running away
I'm so in love now

She is a masterpiece of God sent to me
And I will dry every tear she cries for me
I have a reason to survive

She hears my broken words
Confess my phobias to her
And her love is unwavering
Now unhappiness will have to wait

She's smiling at me
I'm falling in love now
(Smiling at me)
She's singing my songs
I'm falling in love now
(Singing my songs)
She's running away
I'm so in love now
(She's running)

I'll take every second chance that she gives to me
But for now unhappiness will have to wait

She's smiling at me
I'm falling in love now
(Smiling at me)
She's singing my songs
I'm falling in love now
(Singing my songs)
She's running away
I'm so in love now
(Running away)
