

Warren's Song, Pt. 24

Bracket

I never enjoy the simple things in my life
I couldn't ignore the pain you bring
If I tried

It's not easy telling lies everyday
You're not fooled by this disguise anyway

I can't drag myself away from here or from you
All I can be is insincere and untrue

It's not easy telling lies everyday
You're not fooled by this disguise anyway
You see through these empty eyes everyday
