I was just wandering after love if I started falling anywhere around here 'cause I swear that I saw in the sky, a comet A star flying high everywhere If you know me, know me, know you can show me Yes I know, if you want, move close to the sun And ohh And ohh I feel that, too young, I know it's all wrong We walk through the field without a care in the world If you know me, know me, know you can show me Yes I know, if you want, move close to the sun And ohh And ohh And all we are is all we are And all we are is all we are