

Beyond Enemy Lines

Brainstorm

Everything that comes together dries up inside and dies alive
Waiting for my turn to come
All hope is gone and no one ever really cares

But I can't turn away, can't face the pain
It's like a nightmare in motion
And why your lips just lie, you speak in flames
But now I'm ready to breathe

I'm walking beyond those enemy lines
Eyes behold, dreams unfold
It's flashing in memories through my mind
Eyes behold, all of my dreams unfold

Every time we come together, all the pictures are passing by You'll never bring me down again
You'll never make me feel like I've been dumb and blind

But there's no sign of life, the air I breathe is dark and thick and frozen
And while your lips still lie, you speak in flames, but now I'm ready to speak

I'm walking beyond those enemy lines
Eyes behold, dreams unfold
It's flashing in memories through my mind
Eyes behold, all of my dreams unfold

I'm walking beyond those enemy lines
Eyes behold, dreams unfold
It's flashing in memories through my mind
Eyes behold, all of my dreams unfold

I'm walking beyond those enemy lines
Eyes behold, dreams unfold
It's flashing in memories through my mind
Eyes behold, all of my dreams unfold
