

Divine Inner Ghost

Brainstorm

Stillness of the night now
When it comes close and it feels cold
Turn my eyes black and my lips blue
Makes the skin dry, freezing inside

One blink and my heart bleeds
One word now and my soul's weak
The cold blood runs through my veins
But I am gazing why I'm insane

It's a part of me that tells you
Still believe and you'll find
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost

Before my eyes you'll be torn apart
Still believe in your fight
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost
My inner ghost

Something out is reaching
Hear you whisper while I'm breathing
I must leave this place of madness
My way to deal with sadness

Freezing, when the wind blows
Nightmares, but I can't go
Make my scars bleed while I'm feeding
My insomnia, I'll embrace the darkest night

It's a part of me that tells you
Still believe and you'll find
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost

Before my eyes you'll be torn apart
Still believe in your fight
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost
My inner ghost

It's a part of me that tells you
Still believe and you'll find
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost

Before my eyes you'll be torn apart
Still believe in your fight
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost

Before my eyes you'll be torn apart
Still believe in your fight
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost

Before my eyes you'll be torn apart
Still believe in your fight
My inner ghost, your heavenly God
My divine inner ghost
My inner ghost
