

From Hell

Brainstorm

And time has come to cleanse my soul
Will I really hear your laughter?
Do I know what I have done?
Open my eyes on the morning after

Pointing fingers at who's to blame
Without really knowing why
Hard to believe what I've done to you
But don't ever give up and don't subside

The past I can't erase
So strike away at my last mistakes

Bring me to life and take my hand
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land
Bring back my tears and dreams I hold
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land

Getting lost, am I bleeding out?
I should fall before the rage
Time is up, I'm crashing down
You hold my soul like a slave

Tempting ghosts are surrounding me
In every hour I commit to sin
The demons dance inside my veins
Until the walls are closing in

The past I can't erase
So strike away at my last mistakes

Bring me to life and take my hand
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land
Bring back my tears and dreams I hold
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land

Bring me to life and take my hand
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land
Bring back my tears and dreams I hold
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land

Bring me to life and take my hand
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land
Bring back my tears and dreams I hold
From hell I rise (From hell I rise) to the promised land
