

Holy War

Brainstorm

Stir up the nation into war
They will believe the things you preach
Just need another thrill indeed
Still got to prove you're never weak

Calling for the holy war you always need
In the name of your God you won't fade away
Promised all a place in the hall of fame
You know they'll follow you whenever you must go... to fight

Seducer of a nation blind
They're givin' you this sacrifice
Just instigate the poison seed
A need to feed the flames of hate
