

I, The Deceiver

Brainstorm

Your mind belongs to all
The creatures in my life
Take my beliefs, throw them away
They're crawling deep inside
And leave my tears behind
The lies you preach, the words I pray

The stars fall
And burst into flames
Redeeming hearts
For souls with no names

I'm the deceiver, I rule the night
I will unveil all the secrets in your mind
I'm the believer, I steal the light
For all the saints I left a world behind

I curse the sun and life
No longer turns you on
Bearing my sins deep in your soul
Now take control
And summon in but still alone
Embrace the dead while the world carries on

The stars fall
And burst into flames
Redeeming hearts
For souls with no names

I'm the deceiver, I rule the night
I will unveil all the secrets in your mind
I'm the believer, I steal the light
For all the saints I left a world behind

I had to hide and seek
The dreams we shared
All of the lies
I hear inside my head
Take your beliefs
And throw them all away
You'll reach the world
The price you pay

I'm the deceiver, I rule the night
I will unveil all the secrets in your mind
I'm the believer, I steal the light
For all the saints I left a world behind

I'm the deceiver, I rule the night (I rule the night)
I will unveil all the secrets in your mind
I'm the believer, I steal the light (I steal the light)
For all the saints I left a world behind
