Brainstorm

The enemy's within your reach
Alone they have no choice
They'll bear the cost of your awakening
And try to hear your voice
The damage is already done
You hold your breath and move on
A tragic life, with no escape
But you'll come together as one

As your mind recedes
It feels like a dream, while you fall onto your knees
Oh, this place was safe until you came in
This keeps on repeating again

You wonder why you still believe
In this masquerade conspiracy
You wonder how you failed to see
This masquerade of a true conspiracy

In the mist of the night
Commotion now is spread
A demon on his dawn patrol
Find their bodies dead
Too blind to see, it's payback time
What's fake and what's the truth
Avenge the peace, now who's the clown
When darkness comes to town?

As your mind recedes
It feels like a dream, while you fall onto your knees
Oh, this place was safe until you came in
This keeps on repeating again

You wonder why you still believe
In this masquerade conspiracy
You wonder how you failed to see
This masquerade of a true conspiracy

As your mind recedes
It feels like a dream, while you fall onto your knees
Oh, this place was safe until you came in
This keeps on repeating again

You wonder why you still believe
In this masquerade conspiracy
You wonder how you failed to see
This masquerade of a true conspiracy

You wonder why you still believe
In this masquerade conspiracy
You wonder how you failed to see
This masquerade of a true conspiracy
