

Recall The Real

Brainstorm

I can't believe this moment in my life
I can't recall the real behind the law
I refuse to feel the wounds in my heart
And all the fades away
I'm falling, falling apart!

In the silence of the night
Losing faith, a selfish pride
All my dreams and wrongs have gone
Screaming from the other side for everyone
Following people I can't believe
Everything that's meant to deceive
... the memories still dark in my mind
But you will remember what to find!
I'm feeling like a ball alone
I'm planning to make it on my own
And when I just lost sacrifice
The love we had dropped on the...

I can't believe this moment in my life
I can't recall the real behind the law
I refuse to feel the wounds in my heart
And all the fades away
I'm falling, falling apart!

Now as I feel down and low
Picture mainly damaged, so leave me alone!
There goes my reason for the sins of doubt
She thought we let the poison out
Despite what you think, despite what you say
Makes my heart bleed, I'm falling away
I can't be sure, mostly hate
But I'm fighting away through this boring...
I love the ways we once shared
Replaced by your kind hateful stabbed
I took you for granted, but you brought me down
Never seen what you've done, take a look around!

I can't believe this moment in my life
I can't recall the real behind the law
I refuse to feel the wounds in my heart
And all the fades away
I'm falling, falling apart!

After you will believe in me
Now you see that we're all behind the line
After you see me
I can see the evil in your eyes

I can't believe this moment in my life
I can't recall the real behind the law
I refuse to feel the wounds in my heart
And all the fades away
I'm falling, falling apart!
I can't believe this moment in my life
I can't recall the real behind the law
I refuse to feel the wounds in my heart

And all the fades away
I'm falling, falling apart!
