

Solitude

Brainstorm

I'm standing here in solitude
And try to get what's mine
Forever here in solitude
I am the last in line but not a waste of time

I don't know where to begin
'Cause the walls you live in
They are no shelter for life
You're just a ghost inside

Sometimes if I lose my way
Again you threw me away
Forever leave you behind
Because the future's mine

Now all the pain lies ahead
Believer's heart full of dread
When all is said, all is done
You try to prove me wrong

The path that I search in vain
How can I find it again
When the dark turns to light
There is no end in sight

I'm standing here in solitude
And try to get what's mine
Forever here in solitude
I am the last in line but not a waste of time

Recall the past when you're strong
But all your hope is gone
These words left scars on me
I'm isolated but free

Once you brought tears to my eyes
And tried to turn back the time
Was it another lie
Or did I misread the sign?

Now take these words on your way
Don't waste your time with me
As heroes turn into fools
I will unveil the truth

Mistakes will turn into gold
You try to sell your soul
Seems like you're dying inside
For these illusions of lies

I'm standing here in solitude
And try to get what's mine
Forever here in solitude
I am the last in line but not a waste of time

I'm standing here in solitude
And try to get what's mine

Forever here in solitude
I am the last in line but not a waste of time

I'm standing here in solitude
And try to get what's mine (forever)
Forever here in solitude
I am the last in line but not a waste of time

I'm standing here in solitude
And try to get what's mine (try to get what's mine)
Forever here in solitude
I am the last in line but not a waste of time
