

Stigmatized (Shadows Fall)

Brainstorm

Night shade inside the mirror
Distorted faces on the wall of skulls
That's where I fall
And as the twilight's fading
I realize there's something born from pain
That knows my name

Rise
I'm growing weak and cannot draw the line
I swallowed my life

Shadows are falling
I'm stigmatized
Vengeance is calling
Come, lorn at last
There I lay in a shade of the past

My silhouette is moving
My blood is pounding but the heart is cold
Now death unfolds
I searched for all the answers
Obtained the madness steals my breath away
Dropped me insane

Rise
Not growing weak I better draw the line
To my borrowed life

Shadows are falling
I'm stigmatized
Vengeance is calling
Come, lorn at last
There I lay in a shade of the past

Shadows are falling
I'm stigmatized
Vengeance is calling
Come, lorn at last
There I lay in a shade of the past

Shadows are falling
I'm stigmatized
Vengeance is calling
Come to the land
To the horror I've seen in the end
